Who we are

- Foodbank Victoria is an independent, not-for-profit organisation with more than 90 years' food relief experience – the state's oldest and largest organisation of its kind.
- We work with hundreds of corporate and community partners to source and distribute food to people in need across Victoria, many of whom are children.
- Foodbank operates by supporting over 500 charity partners with food sourced from across the food and grocery supply chain; including fresh produce, chilled products, pantry items, and personal hygiene items.
- Charity partners use these items in their food relief programs through community pantries, kitchens, dining rooms, soup vans, emergency food hampers and more.
- Foodbank Victoria is also part of the State Government's Emergency Relief Plan and provides food relief for those affected in times of crisis.

The School Breakfast Clubs Program

- The School Breakfast Clubs Program is a Victorian Government commitment delivered in partnership with Foodbank Victoria.
- The program enables all students at Victorian government schools to enjoy a free, nutritious breakfast, allowing them to engage and participate fully in all the educational and social opportunities that school offers.

Our role

- Foodbank Victoria's role is to source and deliver a range of core foods so schools can deliver the program, while providing information and resources to support the growth of the program within each school.

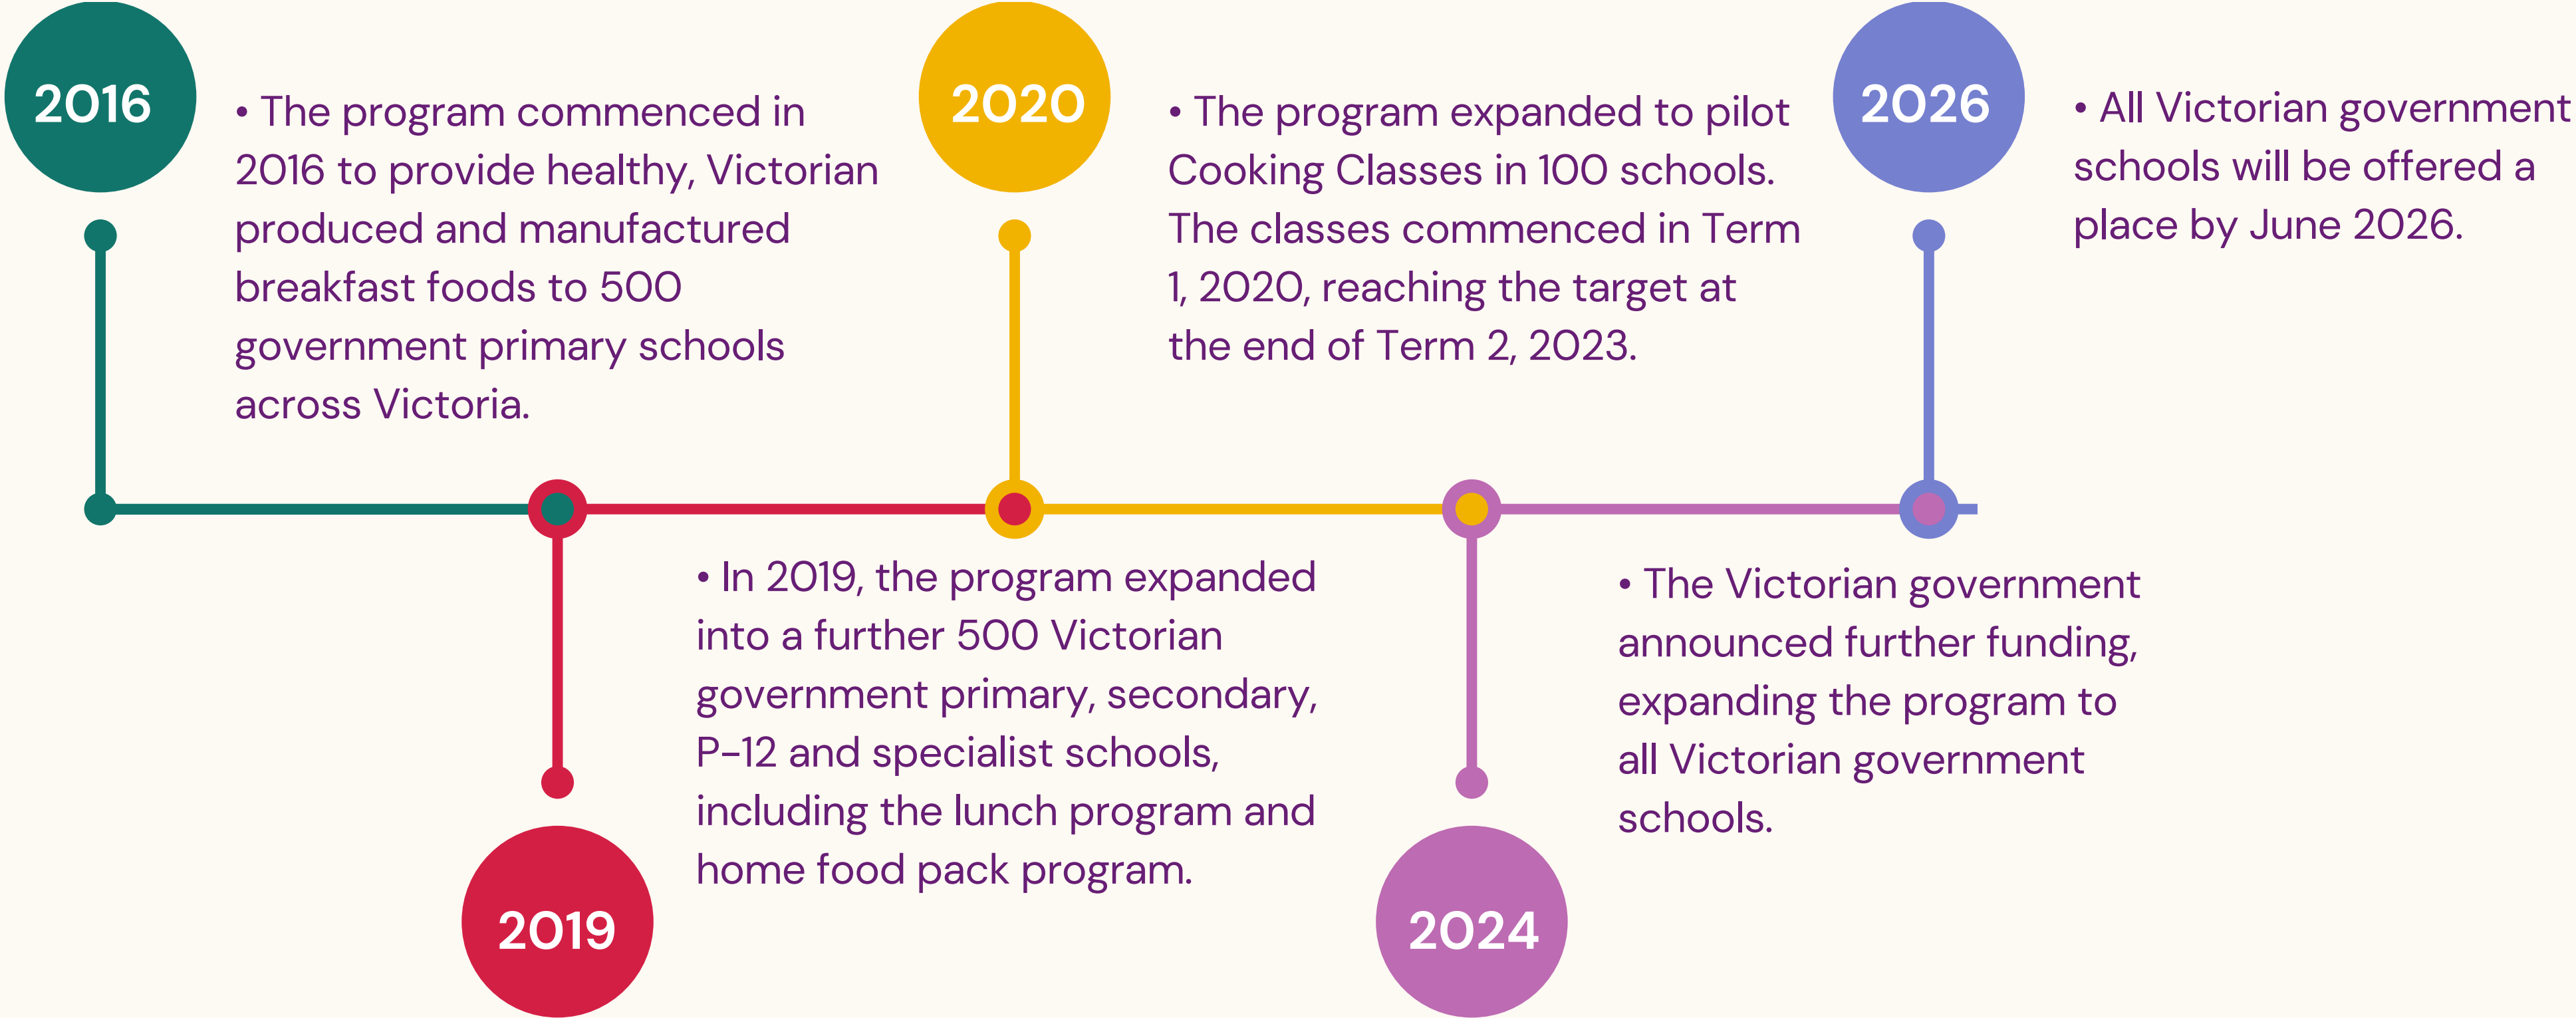

School Breakfast Clubs Program - key components:

Through the program, schools can access the following items for free:

- Breakfast items – to set up a breakfast club for all students at school.
- Snack and lunch items – to offer to identified students who do not have access to nutritious food or an adequate lunch during the school day.
- Home food packs – to provide to identified students who require additional access to food at home.

The expansion of the School Breakfast Clubs Program

Conditions of joining the program

While the program has been developed to be flexible, there are a few conditions that schools must adhere to:

1. Breakfast club must be available to all students

- This is to reduce potential stigma and to ensure that individual students aren't singled out, and do not attach any perceived shame or stigma to the program.

2. The program, and all program food, is provided free of charge

- Schools must not charge students, parents or caregivers for food that is provided through the program, and the program must not involve any fees, rewards, or other benefits in exchange for providing food.

3. Program food is supplied for its intended purpose only

- All food supplied through the program must only be used for the purposes of running a breakfast club, providing snacks or lunches, or for students to take home.
- Products cannot be on-sold, including in school canteens or fundraisers, or used in paid programs (e.g. OSHC).
- Volunteers must not receive food as payment or as part of any employment or service agreement

The School Breakfast Clubs Program Toolkit is available to guide you in getting your school breakfast club up and running.

You can access this via the School Breakfast Clubs Program website here: schoolbreakfastclubs.org.au/breakfast-club

Benefits of a breakfast club

The Foodbank 2015 Hunger in the Classroom Report found:

- Two-thirds of Australian teachers report having children come to school hungry or without having eaten breakfast.
- It also reported that on a typical day around three students in every class will arrive at school hungry or without having eaten breakfast.

Feedback from schools indicates the following breakfast club benefits:

- Improved engagement and learning outcomes
- Improved school attendance
- Improvements in student behaviour

Your role

- Being the main point of contact with Foodbank Victoria.
- Managing communications to students, staff, parents and volunteers.
- Rostering staff and volunteers to assist in running the program.
- Coordinating resources required to run the program.
- Ordering food for breakfast club, lunches and home food packs.
- Promoting the program internally across all staff, including leadership.

- Breakfast club also has many social benefits through sharing a meal together and connecting with their peers, school staff, and volunteers in an informal setting.
- To avoid stigma towards those attending, breakfast club must be open and available to all students in the school.

Whole of school approach to healthy eating

The School Breakfast Clubs Program also aims to support a whole-school approach to healthy eating and relates to a range of school programs and initiatives.

The program aligns with:

- Department of Education's Framework for Improving Student Outcomes (FISO)
- Department of Education's Canteens, Healthy Food and Other Food Services policy
- The Healthy Schools Achievement Program
- Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden Foundation
- Healthy Eating Advisory Service which provides an opportunity to reinforce healthy eating knowledge and skills delivered through the Victorian Curriculum F-10

The menu is assessed by the Healthy Eating Advisory Service FoodChecker to ensure items comply with the department's Canteens, Healthy Eating and Other Food Services policy. Green rated items, as well as locally sourced products are prioritised on the program menu.

Supplementing the program

Your school may choose to supplement the School Breakfast Clubs Program menu with other items.

Some supplementary food ideas include:

- Alternate milks, other fruit, eggs, cheese, yoghurt, butter, spreads, rice or cooked items.
- If supplementing, we encourage you to consider healthier options.
- To understand which items are best suited, use the Food Checker on the Healthy Eating Advisory Service website.

Sources of supplementary food may include:

- Local community groups
- Donations from businesses including bakeries or supermarkets
- Community fundraisers
- Food drives

EAT. LEARN. SUCCEED.

Ways to run your program:

- Start small, go big, or anything in between!
- The program is flexible to best suit the needs of your school and student cohort.
- Some schools start by ordering fresh fruit to have available as a nutritious grab and go option, and slowly introduce a breakfast club on one or two days per week.
- Others may already have the infrastructure and support networks in place to start up a breakfast club straight away!
- Go at your own pace – once you feel comfortable with the ordering process, uptake of products by students, staff/volunteer support etc, you can expand your breakfast club to run more frequently.
- Need some inspiration? For some examples of how breakfast club can be run, check out the scenarios in the resources section on the School Breakfast Clubs Program website.

Utilise your school and wider community

The community can get involved with your breakfast club in many ways, including providing additional funding, supplementary products, or through volunteering.

- Let parents, guardians and relatives know that they can be involved in your school breakfast club.
- Contact local community groups for support. Volunteers from outside the school community can provide valuable social interaction for students and connect them with their wider community.
- Get in touch with local business – they may be able to donate supplementary food items or additional funding to support your club.

Volunteering

Schools are responsible for the recruitment and management of their own school breakfast club volunteers.

Always consider:

- Your school's volunteer policy
- Roles and responsibilities of the volunteer
- Avenues to promote volunteer roles/ source volunteers
- Screening processes
- Volunteer induction process
- Volunteer recognition

Add your school to our interactive volunteer map!

- Foodbank Victoria has a live, interactive map for community members to search for Schools Breakfast Club Program volunteer opportunities in their area.
- View the map here: schoolbreakfastclubs.org.au/volunteering-in-the-program/
- Schools can advertise their volunteer requirements for free on this map. If you would like your school to be included, email schoolbreakfastclub@foodbankvictoria.org.au

Involve your students!

The School Breakfast Clubs Program can be an excellent way to engage your students and develop leadership skills.

Some ideas include:

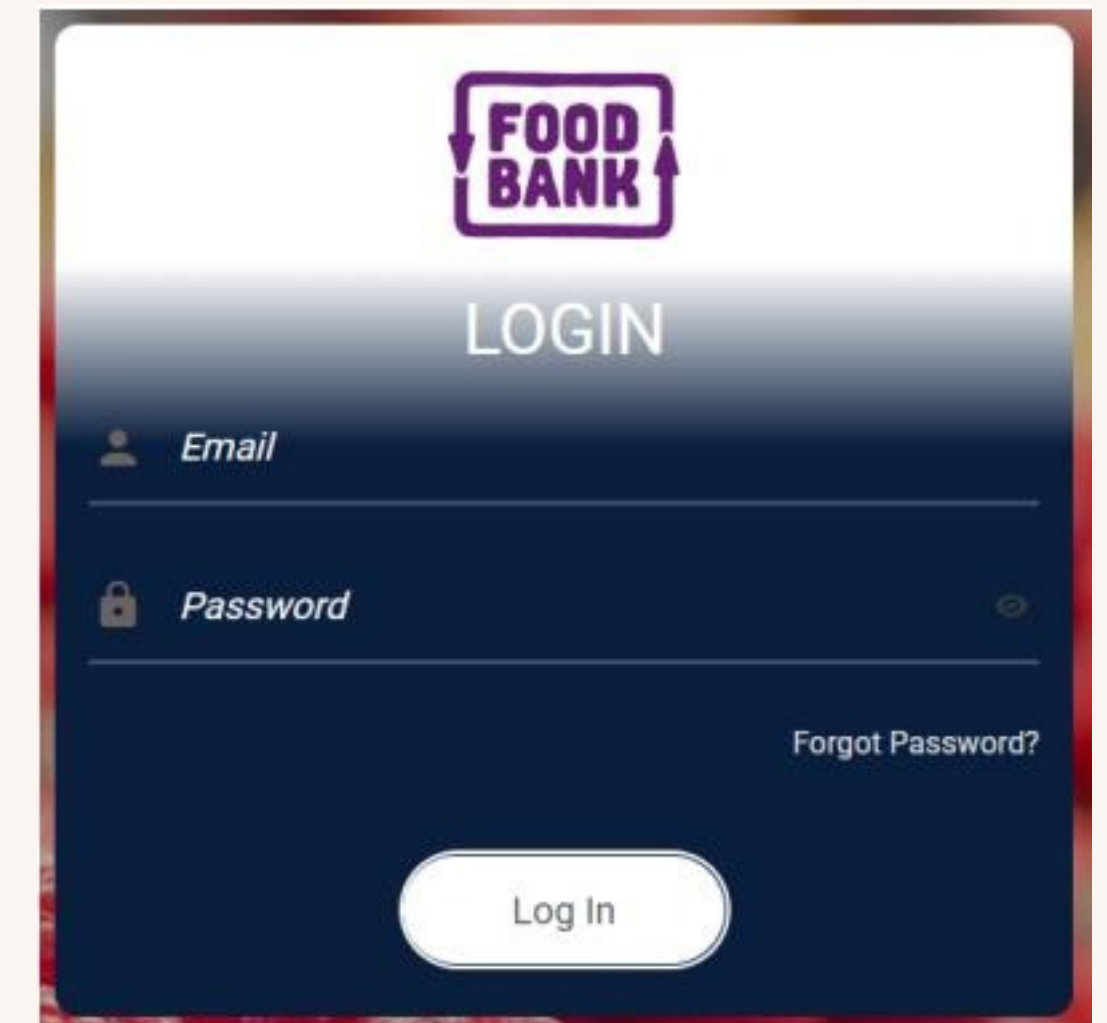

- Promote breakfast club as a life-skills opportunity, encouraging students to volunteer to serve up breakfast for their peers.
- Embed the program into your curriculum! You could run your breakfast club as part of VCAL, hospitality or food technology classes – students can be responsible for planning, ordering, serving, stock takes, advertising and rostering.
- Identify students to be ‘fruit monitors’ to fill up fruit bowls for breakfast.
- Have art students design posters to advertise breakfast club.
- Invite your students to put together music playlists, write question cards to get to know each other over breakfast, create recipes or menus using breakfast club products or create a unique name for your school’s breakfast club.

Opportunities for student engagement, involvement and advocacy are endless, and are important to create safe, fun, inclusive and student-led breakfast club environments.
